

In my community K-LOVE is a household word. All churches and other organizations would be greatly affected if it were to be displaced by an LFLM broadcaster providing other programming. With the way things are in this world how we need all the means we can to provide something positive and so full of HOPE.